Privacy Pledge

This privacy notice discloses the privacy practices for <https://yesforyouth.org>. This privacy notice applies to information collected by our organization.

Website

1. We do not collect any personal information on our website, and therefore no data of any kind is shared with any third party.
2. We do collect any funds of any kind or run fundraising projects through our website. Individuals, corporations, foundations, or other entities choosing to donate to our mission are requested to contact us directly via email or phone.
3. Any changes to this policy in the future will be prominently posted on this website prior to the change taking place.

Information Collection, Use, and Sharing

We are the sole owners of the information that is sent to us. We only have access to/collect information that you voluntarily give us via email or other direct contact from you. We will not sell or rent this information to anyone.

We will use your information to respond to you regarding the reason you contacted us. We will not share your information with any third party outside of our organization.

For any contribution or donation, we will collect the following information: Name, address, email address, and the type of financial transaction.

If transaction is by check: a copy of that check will be kept for our financial records and auditing purposes. The account information on the check will not be collected nor shared with any third party.

If transaction is by electronic transfer: a printout of this transaction that may include the account information of the donor will be saved for our financial record and auditing purposes. The account information on the check will not be collected nor shared with any third party.

Fundraising Campaigns

Information or solicitation from fundraising campaigns will not be sent to anyone on our mailing list without permission being granted by the individual. A solicitation request will be sent by us ahead of the fundraising campaign. Any request to solicit by us would be via email.

Unless you ask us not to, we may contact you via email in the future to share newsletters and information about upcoming events. These newsletters will be informational only, and will not include solicitations for funds of any kind.

Your Access to and Control Over Information

You may opt out of any future contacts from us at any time. You can do the following at anytime by contacting us via the email address or phone number given on our website:

- See what data we have about you, if any.
- Change/correct any data we have about you.
- Have us delete any data we have about you.
- Express any concern you have about our use of your data.

Security

We take precautions to protect your information. When you submit sensitive information via email, your information is protected. We do not collect any personal information on our website.

Only employees who need the information to perform a specific job (for example, receiving a donation or contribution) are granted access to personally identifiable information. The computers/servers in which we store personally identifiable information are kept in a secure environment.

Changes to this Policy

We may make changes to this privacy notice from time to time. You may check back on this page at any time to see our current policy.

If you feel that we are not abiding by this privacy policy, you should contact us immediately at 937-275-1874 ext. 21 or via email at jmccconnell@yesforyouth.org.
